In 2015 the Kardanakhi factory was bought by two businessmen: Vano Gagua and Nikoloz Kizikurashvili. The reconstruction of the buildings and the pitchers began. Soon the new etiquette was made and they started

THE UNIQUENESS OF KARDANAKHI FACTORY

Kardanakhi factory counts an unprecedented number of seven hundred pitchers. It is also unique because of its history which starts in the middle of the XIX century. It was built by a famous Georgian politician Kote Apkhazi and then bought by a Russian feudal Sergey Sheremetiev . Baron de-Baye describes his emotions when he first visited the factory back in 1860's.
